

Biography of Rui Machalele

Rui Machalela, a renowned emotional educator, lecturer and humanist change agent. Rui's trajectory is marked by overcoming, resilience and dedication to serving others. From his childhood in Mozambique to his studies and international career, Rui has transformed adversities into milestones of growth and learning, achieving significant personal and professional achievements.

Childhood and Education

Rui Machalele was born in Maputo, Mozambique, on April 10, 1982, to Jorge Machalela and Luísa Zacarias. His education began at the 16 de Junho Primary School in Mozambique and continued at the Francisco Manyanga Secondary School, where he began to shape his worldview.

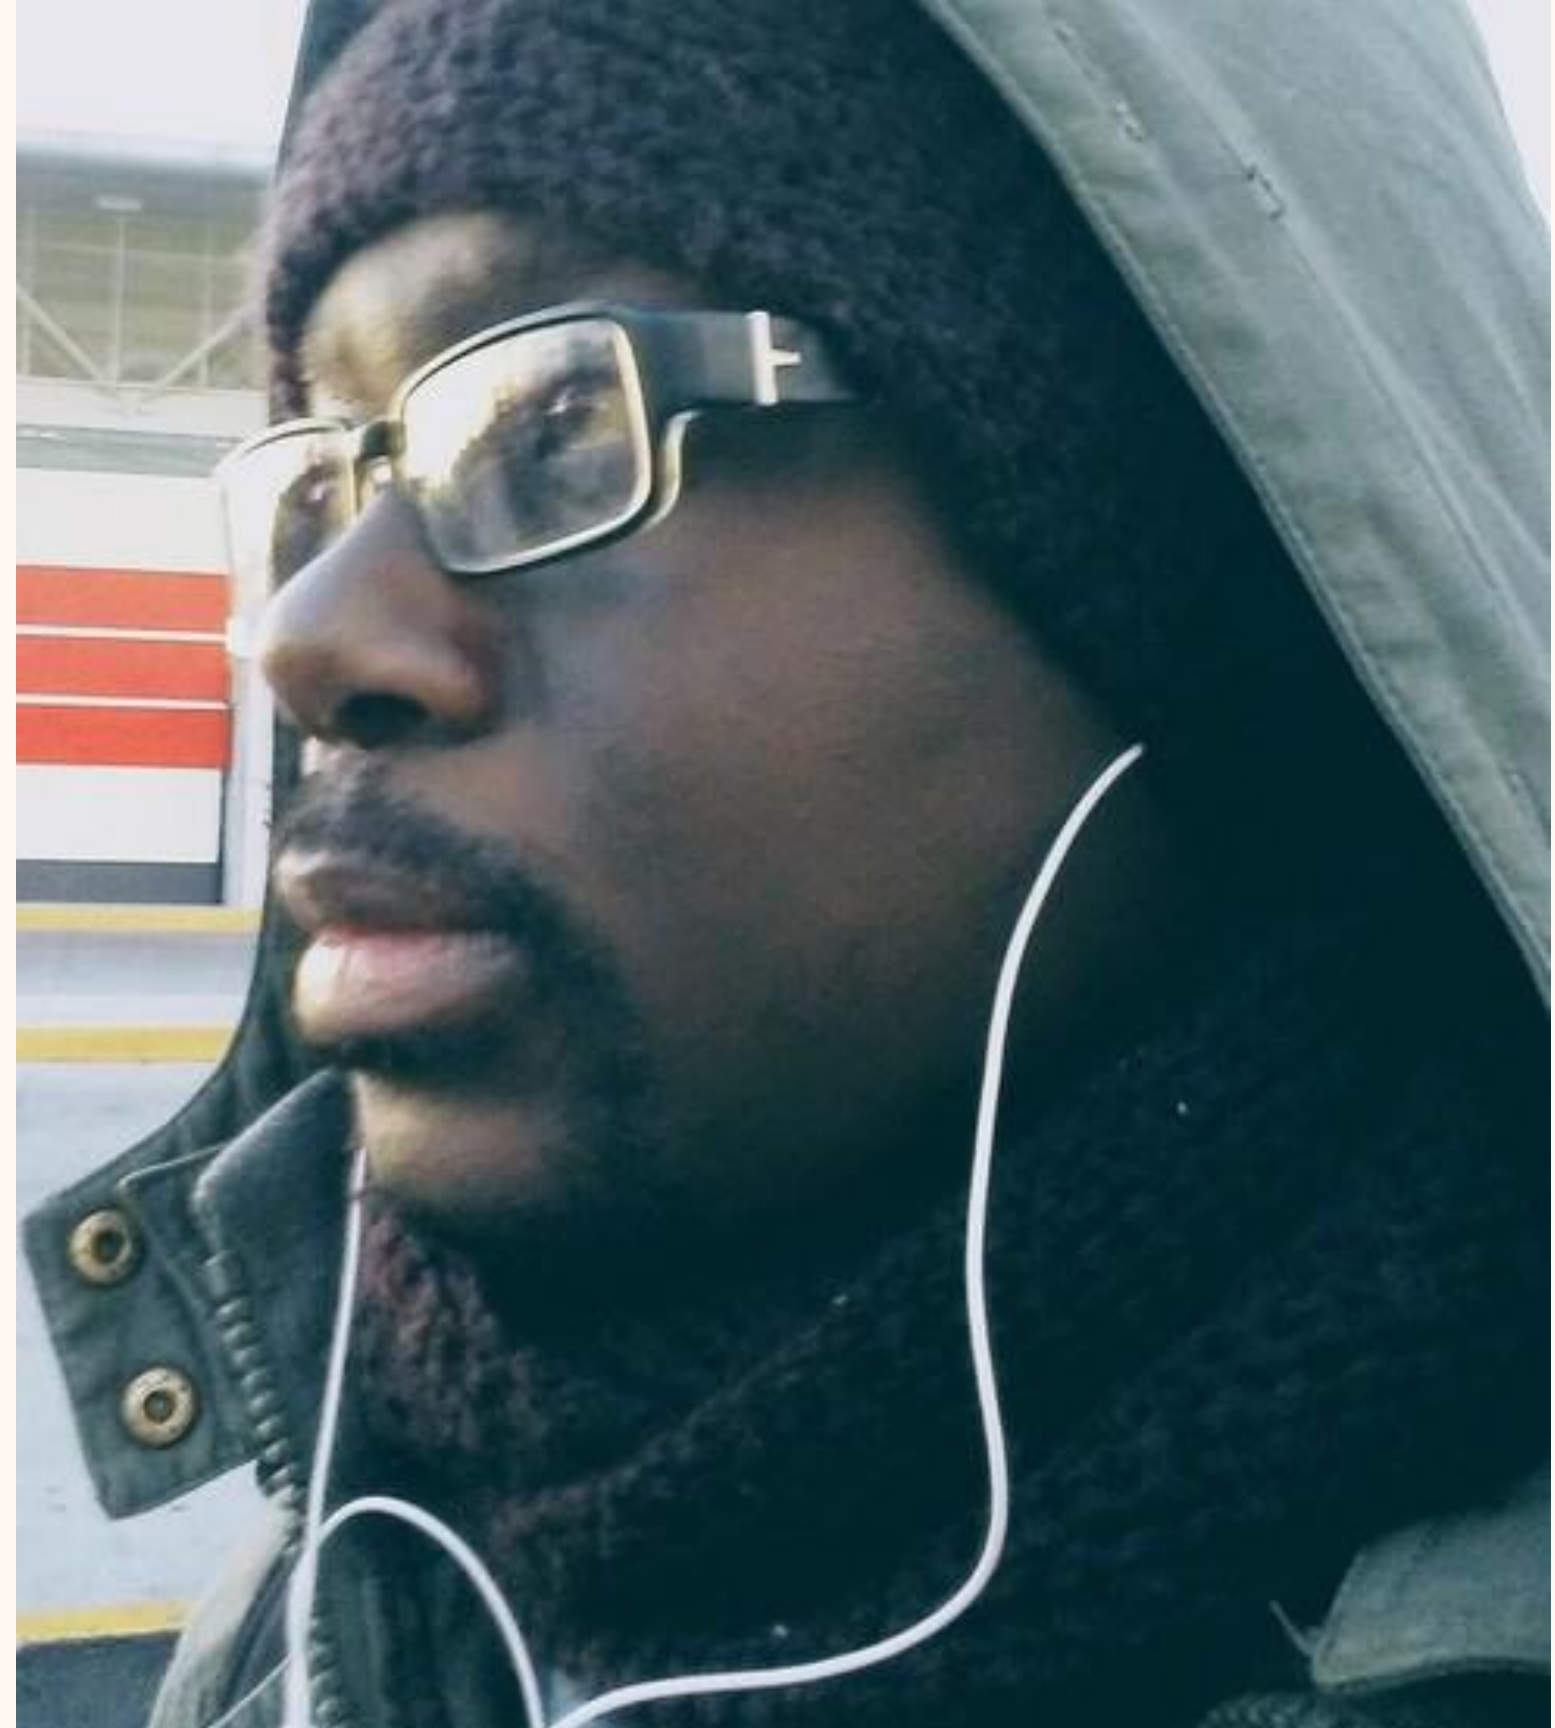

Higher Education

Seeking to expand his knowledge and skills, Rui graduated in International Relations from the Mohamed I University in Oujda, Morocco. His desire to understand the complexities of human and social relations led him to pursue a Master's degree in Human Rights, Interculturality and Development at the International University of Andalusia in Seville, Spain.

Training Complementary

Rui completed his academic training with a Master's Degree in Business Administration and Management (MBA) from the Pablo de Olavide University, also in Seville. This solid academic background provided Rui with the necessary foundations to navigate the global scene with confidence, always with the goal of creating positive changes in people's lives.

Recognitions and Titles

Rui Machalela is widely recognized for the impact he has generated in different areas. He was named Neurotalent Emotional Educator by the National Council for Standardization and Certification of Labor Skills. His commitment to social and human transformation was highlighted with the title of Doctor Honoris Causa in Humanism and Global Excellence.

1 Awards and Recognitions

In 2024, Rui received the UNACCC Humanity Prize 2024 (Transforming the Global Citizen by 2024), in addition to the Medal Iberoamerican Award for Humanist Lecturer and Agent of Change 2024, awarded by FHC Internacional.

2 International Recognition

In recognition of his tireless work in favor of humanism, Rui was also honored with the IV International Nelson Mandela Award (A Thousand Minds for Mexico International), in Rome, Italy.

Career and Change of Direction

After a distinguished career in the automotive industry, where he worked as an expert negotiator and traveled the world, Rui realized that, despite his material success, there was a void that needed to be filled. He then decided to change course and dedicate himself to the study and practice of emotional education and humanism.

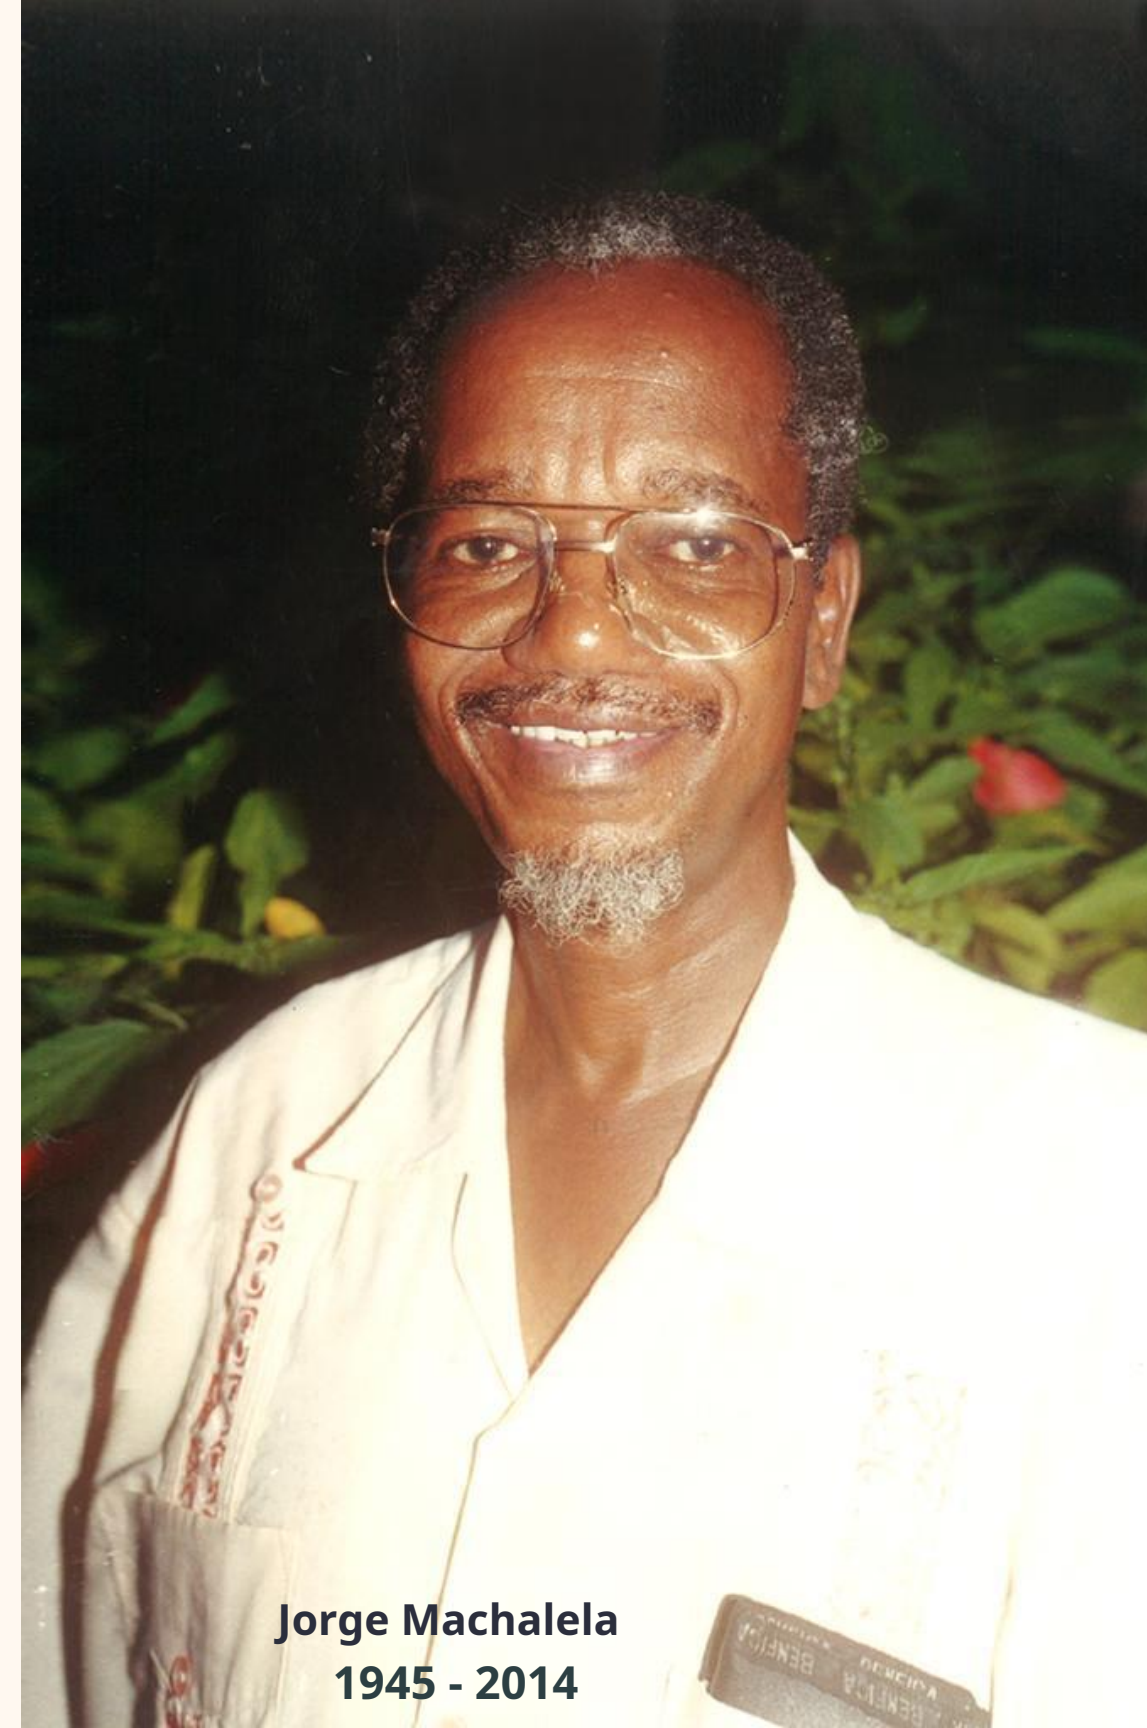

Philosophy of Life and Impact

With a unique ability to connect with the spirit of those around him, Rui is described as "an extraordinary being of light", who uses his tenacity and empathy to influence, guide and transform the environments in which he operates. He believes that true success comes from helping others find their path and has impacted countless lives through his lectures and activities as a humanist speaker.

- 1 — Overcoming and Impact
Born in Mozambique, Rui faced challenges and trials from an early age that shaped his character and worldview. His life experiences have made him an unforgettable human being, someone who not only overcame adversity but also used it as a springboard to help others do the same.
- 2 — Personal Philosophy
Rui sums up his philosophy of life in one sentence: "It is a great honor to have been blessed with the gift of positively impacting people's lives through my existence." He believes that life is not a sprint, but rather a journey of endurance and emotional intelligence, where true success is measured by the positive impact we leave on people's lives.
- 3 — Legacy and Inspiration
Today, Rui continues to inspire and guide those who are privileged to cross his path, whether through his speaking engagements, his humanitarian work, or his everyday interactions.

Legacy and Inspiration

Rui Machalele is undoubtedly a transformative force in the field of emotional education and humanism. His life story is a testament to the fact that, Regardless of the circumstances, it is possible to transform the world around us with emotional intelligence, empathy and dedication to others.

Jorge Machalela
1945 - 2014